

Enlarge my heart, Lord, to love the successes of others.
To celebrate the wins, the wonders, the ebooks and blog posts that women the world over are producing.

A Social Media Prayer

Send me leaping and shouting and praising God
for the innovative ways your Gospel gets to be delivered right to the doorstep of virtual next-door-neighbors the world over.

May I be generous in spending my tweets,
my links,
my words,
and my time
in promoting my sisters over myself.

Give me eyes to see their beauty instead of the threat of their competition.
Amen, let it be so.
